

University of Pittsburgh Greensburg

Psychology Alumnus Testimonial

-

“Before transferring to Pitt-Greensburg in 2013, I felt lost; I was so unsure of myself and my goals. Pitt-Greensburg has given me so many wonderful opportunities to enhance my skills, further define my career goals, and shape me into the person that I’ve always wanted to be. My time here has allowed me to prove to myself that when you set your heart on your goals, you can accomplish anything. I am so thankful for my time here and all the wonderful faculty that helped me get to where I am today.”

— Sarah Hoover, Class of 2015

Sara Hoover is a 2015 graduate of psychology, with a minor in sociology. Sara interned at CASA in the Westmoreland court system. Sara was a teaching assistant for Dr. Jeff Everly’s Research Methods class, and she served as president of Active Minds. She also was a volunteer at the Blackburn Center working with women who have been assaulted. Sara will be a graduate assistant in the Indiana University counseling master’s program in the fall of 2015.