

University of Pittsburgh Greensburg

Spanish Course Rotation

Updated as of 08.2015

Elementary courses: SPAN 0041, SPAN 0042, SPAN 043, offered every semester.

Intermediate courses: SPAN 003, offered in fall semesters; SPAN 004, offered in spring semesters. (With the permission of the instructor, students who complete SPAN 0043 in a fall semester may skip SPAN 003.)

Foundation courses:

SPAN 0020, Spanish Conversation, offered in fall semesters

SPAN 0025, Grammar and Composition, offered in fall semesters

SPAN 0055, Introduction to Hispanic Literature, offered every year

HIST 0501, Modern Latin America, offered every year

HIST 1140, History and Culture of Spain, offered every year

Advanced courses:

All advanced courses are offered approximately once every two years in order to ensure sufficient variety. Students may choose freely among these classes.

SPAN 1300, Spanish Phonetics and Phonemics

SPAN 1302, Advanced Composition and Stylistics

SPAN 1400, Survey of Latin American Literature

SPAN 1403, Latin American narrative

SPAN 1410, Cinema of the Hispanic World

SPAN 1450, Hispanic Legends

SPAN 1600, Survey of Peninsular Spanish Literature

SPAN 1807, Hispanic special topics

Capstone:

All students must complete SPAN 1950, the Senior Capstone Seminar. Students may either take the course, offered approximately every year, or work with a faculty member of their choice in an independent study.

For Spanish Education, contact Dr. Melissa Marks, mjm37@pitt.edu for the current course rotation.